2017
SHOW FEATURES

MATERIA: BAMBOO
SETTING

The Design Center of the Philippines and three of its product specialists, Dem Bitantes, Stephen Buñi, and Rey Soliven, collaborate with the Pampanga Furniture Industries Foundation (PFIF) in developing furniture and decoration pieces for architectural and contract markets.
The Materia: Bamboo special setting emphasizes the versatility of bamboo as a material, adapting to modern finishing and textures for new market niches, especially the contract market.

MATERIA:
COCONUT SETTING

The Materia: Coconut setting puts a spotlight on the continued exploration and development of coconut materials under Design Center's Materials Research and Development Program. From a coconut's twigs, shells, husks, and its leaves, coco coir and guinit are produced, treated, and manipulated for interior and architectural application in a product collection developed by product specialist Wataru Sakuma, in collaboration with Philippine SMEs.

LUCENT OBJECTS

Lucent Objects features lamps and lighting pieces showcasing the application of manipulated and processed agricultural wastes like corn husk, peanut shell, palm husk, pandan pith, and rice hull resulting from Design Center's Materials Research and Development Program. These materials are expressed anew in product designs developed by product specialist Stanley Ruiz.

NEW GENERATION
WEAVES

The New Generation Weaves echoes once again the voice of Philippine indigenous and natural materials after its successful launch in the 2016 Manila FAME October edition.
Led by Paris-based design specialist Nelson Sepulveda, the exhibit pays homage to the Philippine artisanship that evokes a global contemporary lifestyle characterized by balance and restraint.

2017

CHRISTMAS "PABITIN"
REDUX

The Christmas "Pabitin" Redux exemplifies Philippine festivities by incorporating the country's iconic celebrations, i.e., Christmas and fiestas, into an illuminated display. Christmas décor in various shapes and sizes are hung from lattice of bamboo sticks to create ornate geometric shapes and symmetry as part of the exhibit by the Philippine Homestyle and Holiday Décor Association.

MINDANAONE FASHION

MindanaONE Fashion presentation brings together extremely beautiful and typically delicate garments from Mindanao in a special setting that highlights the contemporary applications of Southern Philippines tapestry.
Made from the textiles and weaving tradition native in the regions, these garments are a testament to the versatile Filipino craftsmanship.

GREAT WOMEN 2

The Gender Responsive Economic Actions for the Transformation (GREAT) Women Project 2 demonstrates the creativity and ingenuity of local manufacturers and artisans from 35 women-led companies in 13 different regions all over the country. Led by Design Center of the Philippines product specialists Rachelle Dagnalan, PJ Aranador, and Mon Pabillon, the exhibit champions ASEAN aspirations towards empowering women communities, and sustaining Philippine culture and tradition.

TM*/ NEW DIRECTIONS
REDUX

Materials are considered as the building blocks of transformation towards a new form of creative expression and design sensibility among Filipino artisans. Initially launched in the 53rd edition of Manila FAME in 2011, TM*/New Direction returns to reimagine the country's four most iconic materials: bamboo, coconut, capiz, and abaca to inspire new material manipulation among artisans while also promoting its traditional practices.
