For this 61st edition of Manila FAME, three generations of designers gather – from seasoned artisans tested by time, to young and bright artists starting to make a mark in the design world, to the up-and-coming talents brimming with raw ingenuity – to create an encompassing experience of Philippine craftsmanship that will ignite a spark of inspiration in the world of fashion and design.

With the United Nations' proclamation of the year 2015 as the International Year of Light and Light-based Technologies, Manila FAME gives special focus on one of its emerging design-driven sectors – lamps and lighting – with a unique lighting installation based on material, color, and regional representation.

TWENTY-SIXTH EDITION

If you think we reach only businessmen, think again.

We have a significant number of women readers.*

In business, it's no longer just the men who rule. Women have become important power players in the industry. So it's no surprise that we've gained more women readers over the years.

Majority of our readers are influential people whose decisions impact greatly on today's business environment. People who spend their hard-earned currency on high-ticket items. 63% of our market are in their 20's to 40's. Around 40% engage in an active lifestyle. And yes, we do reach the class C market.

While it's true that we reach the privileged crowd, we've found that many of them eat at fast-food restaurants and buy their gear at the local sports shop.*

We reach a broader market than you'd expect. If you think BusinessWorld readers think only of business, think again.
